
FACILITIES (Amended July, 2018)

A. Ada Public Library Meeting Room Policy

The Ada Public Library maintains meeting room facilities. The meeting room is intended to further the library's mission by facilitating the exchange of diverse information and ideas.

The primary purpose of the meeting room is to promote library services through programs, meetings and other library activities presented by library staff or other organizations affiliated with the library. When the meeting room is not being used for a library activity, the space will be available to the public for governmental, non-profit, civic, cultural or educational programs or meetings. Access will be provided on equal terms, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting use. The Library does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of any group or individual. Trade or professional associations are interpreted to be educational groups. Artistic performances by individuals will be permitted only when co-sponsored by the Library.

The terms for public use of the Ada Public Library Meeting Room are as follows:

B. Types of Meetings

All meetings must be free and open to the general public. Organizations conducting business meetings or presenting programs may wish to restrict or limit public comments during all or part of their meeting or programs. Any such restrictions should in no way interfere with the public's ability to attend, observe or listen to the program.

Educational courses conducted by non-profit agencies may charge fees for learning materials or course credits, but the program must be open for observation to members of the general public who do not pay fees.

For the purpose of fundraising or book signings, only events sponsored by the library, or other organizations affiliated with the library are permitted.

Meeting room programs must not interfere with library operations or cause a disturbance in the Library.

The use of the library premises for private social functions such as parties or receptions may be permitted on a limited basis.

C. Usage

Meeting rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis during normal Library hours. Library sponsored or co-sponsored programs take precedence over other groups at all times. The Library reserves the right to cancel a reservation if the space is required for use by the Library or a library-related organization. Except in an emergency, two (2) weeks notice will be given for any cancellation made by the Library. The Library will make every effort to avoid a cancellation but does reserve the right.

Groups can schedule regular meetings no more than eight (8) weeks in advance. With the exception of library sponsored programs, meeting room use is limited to once a month. All organizations or groups must complete a Meeting Room Application form each time they reserve space.

The meeting room is available during the hours that the library is open to the public. All meetings must be completed no later than fifteen (15) minutes before the Library closes. Meeting room reservations are scheduled for specific prearranged times. All meetings and events including time to set up and clean up must take place within the prearranged times.

The Library cannot guarantee to have assistance available at the time of the event. Groups are responsible for arranging tables, chairs and other equipment to meet their own needs. As per the local Fire Department, Occupancy is limited as follows:

- Meeting Space with 30 chairs and 11 tables – 40 persons
- Meeting Space with chairs only – 40 persons
- Meeting space with no chairs or tables – 56 persons
- Reading Room (Snyder Room) – 12 persons

Food is only to be served with permission from Library staff. Cooking is not permitted, nor is the use of the staff lounge/kitchen area. Users are responsible for cleaning up and restoring the room to its original condition before leaving. A minimum fee of no less than $25 for janitorial service will be assessed if the meeting space is not left in original condition. Users are financially responsible for any damage to the meeting space.

Red colored drinks are prohibited.

Burning candles, Sterno or other flammable substances are prohibited.

Without prior approval from the Library Director, live animals are prohibited unless they are needed to assist a visitor with a disability.

No smoking or alcoholic beverages are allowed in the Library.

Nothing may be affixed or mounted in any way to the walls or ceiling.

Cancellations should be made as soon as possible in order to make the space available for others.

The Library retains the right to deny the space to any user whose planned use of the space does not comply with these terms. The Library Director has final say in meeting room decisions.

D.Liability

The Library assumes no liability for theft or damage to property brought onto Library property or for injuries which occur as a result of actions of sponsors or participants during activities taking place in meeting rooms.

The individual or group reserving a meeting room will be held responsible for the order and conduct of the group and for any loss or damage to library property. Young children accompanying adult users of the meeting room shall not be left unattended in the Library. Minors are not permitted to use meeting rooms without adult supervision.

Any abuse or misuse of facilities will be sufficient cause to deny the use of Library meeting rooms in the future.

E.Contracts, Fees, and Refunds

Persons or groups must submit a completed Meeting Room Application available at the Circulation Desk at least ten (10) days before the event. The reservation is not confirmed until the application has been submitted and approved by the Director.

F.Information, Materials, and Endorsements

Use of meeting room does not constitute Library sponsorship and/or endorsement. No individual or group may state or imply Library endorsement or sponsorship of events in the Library meeting room without written approval from the Library Director. To establish the fact that the Ada Public Library is not sponsoring the event, all publicity which uses the name of the library must include the statement: "Sponsored by..." (the name of the organization reserving the room). Announcements or publicity must include an address or telephone number other than the Library as a contact for information.

Material such as pamphlets and flyers may be posted or distributed within the meeting space.

Failure to comply with meeting room policy or rules may result in loss of meeting room privileges including immediate termination of a meeting by appropriate library personnel.
